I'm speaking emojis!

Sitting on the sofa, Anna is sending Lucy an instant message. But Anna isn't using real words or writing real sentences. Like other young people, they're communicating with small, colorful pictures – emojis.

You can find creative emoji T-shirts, posters, videos, stories and songs. Emojis are everywhere, but where are they from and why are they so popular? The emoji inventor, Shigetaka Kurita, is from Japan, and 'emoji' in Japanese means picture (e) and letter (moji). Now over thousand emojis with different skin colours show people and ideas from many cultures, not only Japan. They are becoming a truly international language.

Emojis and emoticons can show our feelings. When we aren't speaking face-to-face, it's important to see if a message is sad, silly, funny or happy. So emojis are useful, but they mostly add a bit of fun and colour to our lives. We really love them.

Questions

1) What is Anna doing?

- A) writing an email
- B) sending a message
- C) talking on the phone

2) What are emojis?

- A) short words
- B) short sentences
- C) small, colorful pictures

3) Where can we find emojis?

- A) everywhere
- B) only on clothes
- C) in books

4) Where are emojis from?

- A) the U.S.A
- B) England
- C) Japan

5) Why are emojis so popular?

- A) They are small and colorful.
- B) They can show our feelings.
- C) They are very creative.

D/ WRITING. (2 PTS)

Read this note from your friend.

I speak emojis a lot. Do you like using them? Who do you usually send emoticons to?

Write your friend a note and answer the questions. Use 25 words or more.
