

Every day we throw _____ objects such as _____, old household appliances, and _____ bottles. But an artist from Uruguay called Jaime built a house made from these types of _____. The house is in Brazil and it has a bedroom, a kitchen, and a _____. There are shelves made from _____ and old wood and there's lots of _____. That's because Jaime used coloured glass from bottles in the _____.

When people visit the house, Jaime wants them to think about the _____ and about how we _____ and reuse everyday objects.

Uruguayan artist Jaime built this home in Florianapolis, Brazil, from recycled materials.