Reading Comprehension

A Day on Set with Director Jane

Jane Simmons is a young film director from New York. Every morning, she checks the script and meets with the actors. If the scene is difficult, she gives extra time for rehearsal.

Jane always says that if you work hard, you will succeed. She believes in her team and supports everyone.

When she was a teenager, she dreamed about making movies. Now, if she wants to create a new story, she writes it herself.

"If I weren't a director, I'd probably be a writer," she says. "But directing is my passion."

Jane often tells her students, "If you have a good idea, don't wait. Just go for it."

1. What does Jane do every morning?

2. What does she do if the scene is difficult?

3. What did Jane dream about when she was a teenager?

4. What would Jane do if she weren't a director?

5. What advice does Jane give to her students?

Grammar Point: First & Second Conditionals

- ♦ First Conditional – Real Possibility

✿ If + present simple, will + verb

- If I study, I will pass.
- If she works, she will succeed.

- ♦ Second Conditional – Unreal/Hypothetical

✿ If + past simple, would + verb

- If I were famous, I would direct a movie.
- If she had more money, she would film in Paris.

▲ Tips:

- Use first conditional for possible future actions.
- Use second conditional for imaginary situations.
