Task 2: Read and write T/F.

During the winter holiday, my family decided to spend a week in the mountains. We chose to stay at The Mountain View Hotel, a modern building surrounded by tall pine trees. The hotel was famous for its beautiful views and excellent service. It had four floors, a large fireplace in the lobby, and a small library where guests could read books.
Our room was on the top floor. It was warm and cozy, with big windows that looked out over the snowy hills. Every morning, sunlight filled the room, and we could watch people skiing down the slopes.
The hotel offered many activities. Guests could join skiing lessons, go hiking in the forest, or relax in the hot spring bath. My father tried skiing for the first time, while my mother enjoyed reading by the fireplace. In the evening, the restaurant served traditional dishes from the region. My favorite was the hot soup with local vegetables.
The staff were professional and always ready to help. They recommended several interesting places, including an old castle and a frozen lake. We visited both, and they were amazing.
The Mountain View Hotel was more expensive than other hotels in the area, but it was worth the price. The holiday was unforgettable, and I hope we can visit it again one day.
