My grandparents

My name is Anna and I live with my mum and dad in Bristol, in the UK. My grandparents are all amazing people. My dad's parents are called Ron and Joan. Ron was a train driver. He loved his job. He stopped work when he was 65 years old. Joan was an office worker. She worked in the morning and was with my dad in the afternoons. Now they live by the sea. We visit them at weekends.

My mum's parents are Fehim and Elif. They were born in Turkey, but moved to the UK when they were 20 years old. Fehim was a chef. He worked in a Turkish restaurant in Bristol. Elif was a waitress in the same restaurant. Now they live on our road in the house opposite ours. We all eat dinner together during the week, but now my grandfather doesn't cook – my grandmother does!

My grandparents are my heroes. They all worked very hard, and had interesting lives. And my job? I'm a train driver, like my grandfather!

5 Read the text again. Complete the sentences with ONE word from the text.
