My grandparents

My name is Dan and I'm Australian. I love my grandparents – they're all amazing people. My dad's parents were also born in Australia. They're called John and Margaret. John was a police officer, but he stopped work when he was 60 years old. Now, he plays cricket and relaxes. My grandmother was an artist. We have some of her pictures in our house. She doesn't sell her pictures now, but she paints for friends.

My mum's parents are from Greece. They moved to Australia when they were 30 years old. Yiannis is my grandfather and my grandmother is called Sophia. My grandfather was a businessman. He doesn't go into the office now. He spends time with his friends. They play cricket, and watch football and tennis! My grandmother was a nurse in Greece, but she didn't work in Australia. She was at home with my mum and her three brothers. They were a lot of work!

All my grandparents live near us. We drive to see Yiannis and Sophia every weekend, and we walk to see John and Margaret because they live in our town.

Healthy holidays

What's your favourite healthy holiday?

'We went to Italy and travelled around by bike. It was great! We cycled 25 kilometres a day and saw lots of beautiful villages. We stayed at small hotels, and every morning we took our lunch from the hotel and ate it by the roads.' Olga

'I love other countries, so for my last holiday I went to Borneo and walked through the forest with a group of 20 people. We stayed in tents, travelled by bike and boat, and saw mountains. It was amazing!' Terry

'I went on a yoga holiday in Thailand. We ate healthy meals like rice and fish and did yoga for three hours a day. The hotel was by the beach, so I went there to swim and relax every day.' Sandra

'You don't need to be rich to have a healthy holiday. Last summer, my girlfriend and I booked an apartment near a forest in France. We walked in villages and swam in rivers every day. We also bought fruit and vegetables in the market and cooked our own food. We only went to a restaurant once!' Willem
