

ENGLISH ID 2 UNIT 2.5.

2.5. What do you carry in your pockets?

1  2.10 Order the pieces of paper, 1–12, to make a joke. Can you guess the ending? Listen to check.

☐ 1 A man and his wife were having some...

☐ 2 ... he woke up and looked at his alarm clock.
It was 10:30 a.m.!

☐ 3 ... to watch her favorite drama show every evening. One day, the man came...

☐ 4 ... the next morning. But he didn't want to talk to his wife, so he wrote a...

☐ 5 ... he went to bed. In the morning...

☐ 6 _____

☐ 7 ... message: Please wake me up at 4:30 a.m.
He put the message on the TV and...

☐ 8 ... problems in their marriage and they weren't...

☐ 9 ... talking to each other.
Their house was completely...

☐ 10 A piece of paper was lying on the table next to his alarm clock. It said:

☐ 11 ... home from work. He was tired and he had to catch a plane early...

☐ 12 ... silent. Only the TV made noise at night because the woman liked...

2  2.11 Listen to some more anecdotes and respond with one of these phrases after the beep.

No! You're joking!

Oh dear. That's bad luck.

Wow! That is lucky.

3  2.12 Listen to a firefighter from the story “Strange Things Happen”. At each beep, choose the best question.

a ☐ What happened?

☐ Where did you go?

b ☐ Where was the house?

☐ Why was she on fire?

c ☐ They were in her pocket?

☐ The stones caught fire?

d ☐ Is she OK?

☐ Can you buy these stones?

4 2.13 Make it personal Listen and match answers a–e to the questions.

- ☐ Did you read the news today?
- ☐ Is crime a big problem in your area?
- ☐ What kind of TV shows do you like?
- ☐ Do you remember the 2011 tsunami?
- ☐ Do you know any funny stories?

- a No, it's very safe where I live.
- b Nah, I can never remember jokes. But my brother knows a lot.
- c Yeah, the front page had a story about politics.
- d Yeah, I saw it on the news. It was terrible.
- e Hmm. I like comedies and dramas.

Connect

Write your own answers to the questions in 4 and send them to a friend or your teacher.