

1.2 WHERE ARE THEY FROM?

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Learn nationalities
- Learn to use affirmative and negative forms of be

VOCABULARY

1 Answer the questions.

- 1 What's your country's capital city?
- 2 What's your home town or city?

2 Complete the table with the nationalities below.

American	Australian	Brazilian
British	Canadian	Hungarian
Irish	Japanese	Mexican
Moroccan	Turkish	Ukrainian

Country	Nationality
Ireland	Irish
Japan	1
Australia	2
Brazil	3
Canada	4
Hungary	5
Mexico	6
Morocco	7
the USA	8
Ukraine	9
Turkey	10
the UK	11

Most nationalities end with -an, -ish or -ese. Other nationalities have irregular endings: France → French, Switzerland → Swiss, Czech Republic → Czech.

3 Read the forum messages. Choose the correct options.

Sam isn't American. She's Canadian / British.

- 1 Fatima and Ahmed are Moroccan / Mexican.
- 2 Ichika is a young American / Japanese girl.
- 3 Carter and Lily are Hungarian / Australian.
- 4 Daniel is a young Mexican / Brazilian boy.
- 5 Kemal is Ukrainian / Turkish.

4 MEDIATION Imagine your friend doesn't speak English. Use your own language to describe one of the people in the forum in exercise 3.

Friend Forum

Home > Forum > Where are you from?

Where are you from? Send us a message!

Sam

My family and I are from Kersey. It's a small town in the UK. It's a nice place to live.

Fatima and Ahmed

We're from Meknes. It's a big city in Morocco, but it isn't the capital. That's Rabat.

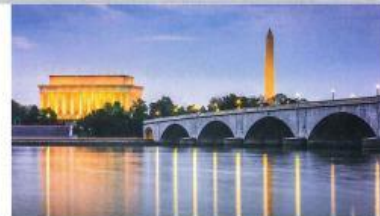

Ichika

I'm from Kamakura. It's a town in Japan. It isn't famous, but it's very pretty.

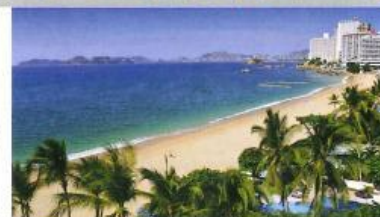

Carter and Lily

Our home is in Washington, DC, but we aren't American. We're from Australia.

Daniel

I'm from Acapulco, in Mexico. My city is famous for its beaches. They're beautiful!

Kemal

I'm from Izmir. It's an old city in Turkey. Izmir's a very interesting place for tourists.

GRAMMAR

be: affirmative and negative

- 5 Complete the table. Use the correct form of be. Use the forum on page 12 to help you.

Affirmative	Negative
I ¹ _____ from Kamakura.	I m not British.
He s from Acapulco.	He isn't Brazilian.
It ² _____ an old city.	It ³ _____ famous.
We re from Australia.	We ⁴ _____ American.

CHECK IT! → MY GRAMMAR REFERENCE & PRACTICE p108

- 6 Choose the correct form of be to complete the sentences.

Selena Gomez is / are from the USA.

- I 'm / 're in English class right now.
- Dublin are / is the capital city of Ireland.
- You and your friends is / are students.
- We 're / 'm from a big city. What about you?
- Chris Hemsworth is / are a famous actor.

- 7 Complete the sentences. Use the negative form of be.

You aren't from the USA.

- Toronto _____ a small town.
- I _____ from Australia or the UK.
- Carter and Lily _____ from Morocco.
- Ichika _____ American. She's from Japan.
- Leo Messi _____ a singer or an actor.

- 8 Look at the factfiles. Describe the people. Use affirmative and negative forms of be.

Finn Wolfhard is an actor.

He isn't American.

- 9 Think of some famous people. Talk about where they're from.

Billie Eilish.

She's British.

No, she isn't.

You're right! She's American.

Finn Wolfhard

- actor ✓
- American ✗
- Canadian ✓

Chloe and Halle Bailey

- singers ✓
- British ✗
- American ✓

Veronica Roth

- writer ✓
- British ✗
- American ✓

Jadon Sancho

- singer ✗
- football player ✓
- British ✓

PROJECT BUILDER 2

Describe interesting people for your collage.

→ Workbook Project Log p4

- 10 Look at your categories from Project Builder 1. Choose four people for your collage. Write two sentences for each person.

JK Rowling is my favourite writer. She's British.

Drake is my favourite singer. He's from Canada.

