

Subject and Object Questions

Look at this example:

Julie loves eating pizza.

- Subject Question → Who loves eating pizza? Julie does.
- Object Question → What does Julie love eating? Pizza.

PART 1 – Match the questions to the correct answers. Write the number in the box.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. Who plays tennis every weekend? | <input type="text"/> You should call the manager. |
| 2. What does Sarah write about? | <input type="text"/> He likes to watch comedy shows. |
| 3. What does Daniel watch every night? | <input type="text"/> James and Sofie do. They're great players. |
| 4. Who comes to these meetings? | <input type="text"/> Her blog is about travel. |
| 5. Who do I call in case of an emergency? | <input type="text"/> The team leaders do. |

PART 2 – Make object questions using the provided sentences.

- Timothy likes listening to rock music. → _____
- Sarah recommends this podcast. → _____
- They always discuss cultural issues. → _____
- We need to borrow your charger. → _____
- She admires that singer. → _____

PART 3 – Make subject questions using the provided sentences.

- Timothy likes listening to rock music. → _____
- Sarah recommends this podcast. → _____
- They always discuss cultural issues. → _____
- We need to borrow your charger. → _____
- She admires that singer. → _____