Subject and Object Questions

Look at this example:

Julie loves eating pizza.

- Subject Question → Who loves eating pizza? Julie does.
- Object Question → What does Julie love eating? Pizza.

PART 1 – Match the questions to the correct answers. Write the number in the box.

1. Who plays tennis every weekend?   ☐   You should call the manager.

2. What does Sarah write about?   ☐   He likes to watch comedy shows.

3. What does Daniel watch every night?   ☐   James and Sofie do. They're great players.

4. Who comes to these meetings?   ☐   Her blog is about travel.

5. Who do I call in case of an emergency?   ☐   The team leaders do.

PART 2 – Make object questions using the provided sentences.

6. Timothy likes listening to rock music. → _____

7. Sarah recommends this podcast. → _____

8. They always discuss cultural issues. → _____

9. We need to borrow your charger. → _____

10. She admires that singer. → _____

PART 3 – Make subject questions using the provided sentences.

11. Timothy likes listening to rock music. → _____

12. Sarah recommends this podcast. → _____

13. They always discuss cultural issues. → _____

14. We need to borrow your charger. → _____

15. She admires that singer. → _____