St Patrick's Day

St Patrick's Day is an Irish celebration, but Irish people brought it to the USA when they moved there in the 18th century. The first big St Patrick's Day celebration in the USA was in Boston in 1737. These days, there are 36.5 million people in the USA with Irish ancestors, but St Patrick's Day is for everyone! So where are the best places to celebrate?

The biggest parade in the USA is in New York City. About 150,000 people march in the parade and another two million watch it! People wear shamrocks – a small plant that is the symbol of Ireland – and lots and lots of green.

In Chicago, people don't just wear green on St Patrick's Day – they even dye the Chicago River green! In California, there is the Los Angeles County Irish Fair and Music Festival. Around 2,000 people perform live Irish music, and there are food stalls, magic shows, dancing and rides. There is even an Ancient Irish Village with blacksmiths, dressmakers, storytellers and singers.

Even though St Patrick's Day is an Irish celebration, the USA is definitely one of the best places to celebrate it!
