

INDEPENDENCE DAY SPEECH

Good morning to all.

My name is and I am studying in class.....

I am very happy to present my speech before you.

Today is the 15th of August.

At first, I wish you all a happy Independence day.

Independence day is the national festival of India.

This year we are celebrating.....th Independence day.

We got freedom in 1947 from British rule.

Independence day teaches us the power of unity.

We should always respect our country.