

1.3 GETTING TOGETHER

LESSON OBJECTIVES

- Learn about projects that get different generations together
- Listen for and understand opinions

LISTENING

1 THINK Look at the photos. Discuss the questions.

- 1 How do you think the people in the photos know each other? Why are they spending time together?
- 2 What are the benefits of older and younger people spending time together? Might there be any challenges?

2 02 Listen to a radio report and check your answers to exercise 1.

To help you recognize opinions, listen for phrases such as I think, I feel, I believe, I'd say, I'm sure / convinced, As far as I'm concerned, From my point of view / perspective, If you ask me. However, a speaker might also state an opinion without using these phrases, e.g. This is great!

3 02 Read the Skill UP! Listen again. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)? Correct the false sentences.

- 1 Lewis believes he has a close relationship with Harry. _____
- 2 Lewis was relaxed about meeting Harry for the first time. _____
- 3 Lewis thinks he and Harry became friends very fast. _____
- 4 Harry says that Lewis has changed his view of life. _____
- 5 Harry thinks that Lewis's cooking has got a little better. _____

- 4 03 Listen to some people talking about intergenerational volunteering. Match the opinions A–E with speakers 1–5.

- A ____ It helps you develop skills you didn't have before.
 B ____ It makes you feel less nervous about talking to adults.
 C ____ It changes the way you see teenagers.
 D ____ It helps generations to know more about each other.
 E ____ It stops you feeling old.

There are a lot of ways young people can get involved in intergenerational volunteering. Find out about opportunities in your community online.

- 5 Discuss the questions.

- What older people do you know? What do you enjoy doing with them?
- Would you like to participate in an intergenerational project? Why / Why not?

- 6 Match the words in bold in 1–7 with their definitions A–G.

- I commit time each week to (playing volleyball).
- I appreciate my friend when (she makes me laugh).
- The person who advises me the most is (my brother).
- I never volunteer to (wash the dishes).
- Someone has to encourage me to (do housework).
- I assist (my aunt) with technology problems.
- I (like having) more responsibility as I get older.

- A persuade

- 8 Write true sentences for you. Change the words in brackets in exercise 6.

I commit time each week to looking after my sisters.

- 9 Discuss your ideas from exercise 8.

I commit time each week to looking after my sisters because my parents work long hours.

PROJECT BUILDER 3

Create questions for an interview.

Workbook Project Log p5

- 10 Look at the topics from Project Builder 2 that your group has decided to include in the blog. Think about what you would like to know about each topic. Then for each topic, write a few questions that you could ask someone from an older generation.

Did you listen to cassettes?

- 11 You're going to use some of the questions from exercise 10 to interview an older person to find out about their life as a teenager. In your group, decide:

- which two questions for each topic you will use
- the order of the questions in the interview
- who each member of the group will interview, e.g. a grandparent, neighbour or parent

- 12 For homework, carry out your interview and take notes.

1.5 LOW TECH
