

Fill in the blanks

- The candle experiment shows that about _____% of the air is oxygen. (20, 24)
- After the flame goes out, the _____ level inside the jar rises (oxygen , water)
- The remaining part of the air after oxygen is used up mainly consists of _____ (nitrogen , oxygen)
- Carbon dioxide makes up _____ of the air (0.05%, 0.03%)
- The candle needs _____ to burn (oxygen , water)
- The candle experiment is used to find the _____ of oxygen in the air.(percentage , oxygen)