

PRACTICE 4

Read the text below and correct the underlined errors.

Collecting Stamps

I have been collecting stamps since I was given a stamp album (0) in my seventh birthday. My interest in stamps (1) growing. Today I have two thousand stamps from all (2) of the world. At present I have three albums. I arrange my stamps neatly in these albums. One is for local stamps, (3) other for Europe and the United States stamps with my pen friends. Sometimes I exchange (4) it with my classmates. My uncle also (5) give me his stamps. Whenever I am free, I will go through the stamps at my own (6) times. In this way, I have learnt about the flora and fauna of each country. (7) Much stamps also depict the traditions of their respective countries. I have also learnt about the currencies (8) using in the countries where the stamps are issued. I can proudly say that the stamps have greatly enriched my general knowledge of the world.

Example:

0	on
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8

A revision of countable and uncountable nouns:

- To express quantity for countable nouns, we use many, a lot of. E.g. There are many fish in the lake.
- To express quantity for uncountable nouns, we use much, a little. E.g. There is not much water in the lake now.