Task 1: Read and write the correct numbers.

What did you do at school today?

____ After that, we went outside for PE class and played a team game with balls.

____ First, I hung up my coat, said hello to my friends, and we all went into the classroom together.

____ Then, we had a maths lesson and learned how to measure things using a ruler.

____ Finally, we wrote about our favorite part of the day in our notebooks before going home.

____ Next, we had a snack break and I shared my apple slices with my best friend.

Task 2: Read and fill in the gaps.

Last weekend, we went on a school trip to the mountains. We packed all the important (1) into our backpacks. When we arrived, we set up our (2)

near a big tree. I helped my friend tie it with a strong (3)

..... so it wouldn't fall over.

At night, it got really dark, so I used my (4) to find the way back to the camp. We made a (5)

..... and used a (6)

to light it.

Then, we cooked sausages in a (7)

and sat around the fire, telling stories.

Later, we got into our (8)

to sleep. In the morning, I wore my (9) to go for a walk in the forest. I used my (10)

..... to look at some birds high in the trees. My friend even opened a can with his (11)

! It was such a fun trip.

Task 3: Look and write.

The birthday pirate

Last weekend, Bill, Jane and their parents went to the sea for Bill's birthday. It was sunny at the beach. The children played badminton with their father. Mum put a picnic on a red blanket. The family sat on the blanket and ate their lunch. They gave Bill a cake and they sang a birthday song. After their food, Mum and Dad slept.

Examples

On the day that the family went to the beach, the weather was sunny

Bill, Jane and their father played badminton.
