Dialogue 1

— I have so much to ___ (1) today! Homework, cleaning, and even some shopping.

— Wow, sounds like a busy day. Did you ___(2) your bed yet?

— Not yet. First I have to ___ (3) the dishes from last night.

— Don't forget to ___(4) an effort with your studies. You want to pass the test, right?

— Yeah, I'll ___(5) my best!

Dialogue 2

— Can you ___(6) me a favor and ___(7) a phone call to the restaurant?

— Sure! Who should I ___(8) it to?

— To the manager. I need to ___(9) a reservation for 7 pm.

— No problem. By the way, did you ___(10) your makeup for tonight?

— Haha, not yet. I have to ___(11) it quickly!

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Dialogue 3

— I accidentally ___(12) a mistake on the report yesterday.

— Oh no! Did you ___(13) a mess?

— Not really, but I still have to ___(14) some corrections.

— Well, you can always ___(15) progress tomorrow.

— True, I'll ___(16) a plan to finish it on time.

Dialogue 4

— I hate when I have to ___ (17) the laundry on weekends.

— Yeah, but if you don't ___(18) it, you won't have clean clothes!

— I know, I just wish I could ___(19) some money and hire someone to ___(20) it for me!

— If only! Meanwhile, we have to ___(21) our best and ___(22) what we can.

Dialogue 5

— I heard you ___(23) business with a new client.

— Yes, it's exciting! We're hoping to ___(24) a lot of money this quarter.

— Great! Just remember not to ___(25) any mistakes.

— Definitely. We want to ___(26) a good impression.

LIVEWORKSHEETS