

Worksheet 17- Sing along- Use of Second Conditional – Iº Medio

Name: _____ Date: _____

Billy Idol

Billy Idol (William Michael Albert Broad) was born on November 30th, 1955, in Middlesex, England. He is a British-American rock singer, songwriter, and musician who became one of the most iconic figures of the 1980s. He first gained fame as part of the London punk rock scene in the middle of the 1970s with the band Generation X, one of the first punk bands to appear on British television.

In the early 1980s, Idol launched a solo career that blended punk attitude with rock and pop, helping to define the look and sound of MTV's early years. With his trademark sneer, bleach-blond spiky hair, and leather outfits, he quickly became a global rock star. His music often combined catchy hooks, hard rock guitar riffs, and a rebellious spirit.

Idol has continued recording and performing for decades, earning recognition as a pioneer of the post-punk and new wave movement. Billy Idol is performing in Chile next 18th November.

Some of his most popular songs include:

White Wedding (1982), Rebel Yell (1983), Dancing with Myself (1981), Eyes Without a Face (1983)
