

THE INDEPENDENCE PERIOD: A STORY OF FREEDOM

1. Read the sentences on the right and match them with the correct date or name on the left.

Simón Bolívar

Francisco de Paula Santander

Atanasio Girardot

July 20, 1810

August 7, 1819

José González
Llorente

August 11, 1813

1808

The final battle that gave Colombia's freedom.

The declaration of Antioquia's independence.

The owner of the flower
vase that caused the conflict.

The Liberator.

The date when Napoleon invaded Spain.

Died holding the flag high.

The "Cry for Freedom" in Santa Fe de Bogotá.

The Man of Laws.

2. Read the sentences and Select True or False.

a. The independence of Antioquia was declared on August 11, 1813.

☐ True

☐ False

b. Atanasio Girardot died holding the flag high.

☐ True

☐ False

c. The final battle happened in Santa Fe of Antioquia.

☐ True

☐ False

d. Simón Bolívar was called The Man of Laws

☐ True

☐ False

e. The capital of Antioquia at the time of independence was Medellín.

☐ True

☐ False

f. The 'Cry for Freedom' on July 20, 1810, was the last battle of the war.

☐ True

☐ False

g. Juan del Corral announced the freedom of Antioquia and the slaves.

☐ True

☐ False

h. José Bonaparte was Napoleon's brother and became king of Spain.

☐ True

☐ False