A Visit to London

Last summer, I went to London with my family for the first time. We stayed there for a week and visited many famous places. On the first day, we went to the Tower of London and learned about its history. The next day, we saw the London Eye, which is one of the biggest wheels in the world. We also visited the British Museum and looked at many interesting things.

My favorite part of the trip was walking along the River Thames in the evening. The lights of the city were beautiful, and we took lots of photos. We also tried some traditional English food like fish and chips. It was delicious!

I really enjoyed the trip, and I hope I can visit London again in the future.
