

Grace

1. Grace bought a pair of glasses at the person who examines eyes and sell glasses.
2. Grace went to a store when she can make things herself.
3. The amount of money Grace had to pay was twice that of a normal pair of glasses.
4. Grace is happy because she can get her money back if there is a problem with her pair of glasses.

James

1. James went to a person who sells fresh meat to buy Prosciutto di Parma.
2. He had to go to a place where high-quality cheese and cold cooked meat is sold.
3. The cost of Prosciutto di Parma is $30.
4. He got some fresh sage leaves at a supermarket.
5. James didn't buy the meal at a restaurant that sells food for people to eat somewhere else.

Liz

1. Liz went to a shop that sell products that help people look beautiful.
2. Liz had to go to a person that sold medicines.
3. When she paid the bill, she was shocked.
4. She could decrease the price even though she got some money from her friends.
5. That month Liz spent more than she should.

Clara

1. Clara always find something at a lower price.
2. Her friend took her to a shop that sell products to get money for unlucky people.