

Describing Personality or Character

*Kind, lazy, hardworking, energetic, dishonest, friendly, jealous, rude, calm, honest, helpful, bossy, selfish, quiet, talkative, patient, cheerful, funny, clever,
unfriendly, sociable, modest, shy, boring, interesting,
generous, mean, thoughtful, impatient, unsociable, confident, stubborn, trustworthy*

Positive/Good

Neutral

Negative/Bad

Now use the vocabulary on the previous page to complete these sentences:

Use positive traits

John thinks about other people, he is

Cara will never tell you all the things she has done to help the school, she is too

I wish I was more like Gemma, she is Grandma always buys me lots of gifts, she is very

Jenny is very so she knows lots of people.

Peter makes me laugh, he is so

Pat is always , if you ever need help, just ask him.

My maths teacher is very , he waits until I have finished the answers and helps me when I make a mistake.

Ben was the best employee at the factory because he was

Use Neutral traits

I wanted to dance with Bob, but he is Tom is _____, he is never scared to talk to others.

Mary is very _____, sometimes you don't even know she is in the room.

Graham is very _____, you won't be able to stop him talking.

Use Negative traits

Don't ask Jim to help, he won't, he's Tina is so _____, she won't share her candy.

That man was _____, he pushed to the front of the queue.

The man lied to the police, he was being

Lucy wanted the same car as Darren, she wasn't happy for him, she was

The little girl was _____. She told her mum what to do!

The boy refused to eat the vegetables, he was being