Instruction: Complete the conversation below. After that, discuss it together in the classroom with your teacher.

Rina : I want to tell you about my best friend, Sinta. She is the person ____ is always _____ and _____.

Dika : That's great. My best friend is Bayu, a boy ____ is _____ and _____. Everyone _____ being _____ him.

Rina : I like friends who are _____ and _____. Sinta is the one _____ kindness makes her _____. She never _____.

Dika : I agree. I also have a classmate ____ attitude is ____. He always ____ his lunch with me.

Rina : But not all friends are like that. I know someone ____ is egotistical and _____. He gets angry very _____.

Dika : Yes, I know a girl like that too. She is the one who ____ upset ____ small things. It's ____ to talk to her.

Rina : And there are people _____ are _____. They never want to _____ their _____.

Dika : That ____ me of a boy who is ____. He often says he will help, but he never ____ up.

Rina : That kind of friend is _____ to _____. A real best friend is someone _____ you can depend on and share _____ with.

Dika : Exactly. A true friend is the one that ____ you feel ____ and ____.

Rina : So, would you say Bayu is that kind of friend?

Dika : Yes. Bayu is the one _____ listens _____ judging, who _____ me when I fail, and _____ sense of humor makes every day better.

Rina : Then you are lucky. Friends like that are rare.

LIVEWORKSHEETS