

a) Read the riddles and write the correct word.

I'm a door that helps you go into a place.	I'm a shop where you can buy medicine.	You can use me to pay for things, I'm money in the form of coins.
I'm a piece of paper that shows how much money you have to pay. (before)	I'm a large building that was built in the past to protect people.	I'm a piece of paper that you receive after you pay.
I'm a building where interesting objects are showed, like paintings.	I am a verb you use when you pay money for something.

b) Match the word with the correct image.

	pharmacy receipt cash flat advertisement castle

Who is the impostor?

The impostor has
been ejected.

