4 Complete the sentences. There are more words than you need.

constant | cautiously | swiftly | recently | final | constantly | recent | cautious | desperately | swift | finally | desperate

1 Where were you yesterday? I wanted so ..... to talk with you.
2 After looking right and left, she stepped ..... onto the street.
3 Her emotions changed ..... from surprise to irritation.
4 I flipped the book to the ..... pages, curious to find out how the story ended.
5 This is our most ..... family photo. It was taken last summer.
6 Some people have the TV on ..... . I prefer peace and quiet at home.
7 You should be more ..... about giving empty promises, shouldn't you?
8 I ..... saw a good film about Winston Churchill, a British politician.

5 Complete the sentences with the words below. Each word needs a prefix.

anti | de | dis | il | im | in | ir | mis | non– | un

frost | regular | correct | legal | agree | understand | stop | clockwise | usually | possible

1 There are a lot of ..... verbs, nouns, and adjectives in the English language.
2 It was ..... to sleep because of the ..... loud street noise.
3 I strongly ..... with the alcohol laws here. Selling alcohol in the supermarkets should be ..... .
4 Most of our answers to the quiz proved to be ....., so we now need to find the right ones.
5 You can get the top off the bottle if you push it down and twist it ..... .
6 I can't see how you could ..... the safety instructions.
7 Is there a ..... flight from Tallinn to London?
8 When ice starts to build up in the freezer, it's time to ..... it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS