

LISTENING ACTIVITY
Animals communicating with each other

DIRECTIONS:

You will hear part of a radio talk for young people about animals communicating with each other. For questions 9-18, complete the notes below, which summarise what the speaker says.

Bees do a (9) _____ to communicate where to find food.

Although parrots seem to speak, they are only (10) _____ the human sounds.

Primates can communicate a few (11) _____ using simple sounds.

Monkeys have not been observed to use any kind of (12) _____.

Although dolphins can make vowel sounds, they cannot accurately imitate our (13) _____.

Amazingly, dolphins demonstrate (14) _____ of when phrases should be used.

The sounds made by whales contain (15) _____ than human speech.

The songs of the bottle-nosed whale have many of the (16) _____ of human speech.

The unique grammatical nature of human language arose due to life in (17) _____.

Indeed, a young child needs enough (18) _____ with other people to develop speech.