Machu Picchu – A Wonder of the Ancient World

Machu Picchu is one of the most famous and mysterious historical sites in the world. Located high in the Andes Mountains of Peru, this ancient Incan city was built over 600 years ago and remains one of the greatest architectural achievements of the Inca Empire. The stone structures, terraced hillsides, and spiritual atmosphere reflect the skill and creativity of the Incan civilization. Surrounded by breathtaking mountains and lush green landscapes, Machu Picchu is not only a symbol of Peru's rich cultural heritage but also a stunning destination for travelers and history lovers. Every year, thousands of tourists from around the globe visit the site to admire its unique beauty and learn about Incan history and traditions.

However, the increasing number of visitors has raised serious concerns about the preservation of this world wonder. To protect Machu Picchu, the Peruvian government has introduced strict tourism regulations. Visitors are now required to follow guided tours, and only a limited number of people are allowed to enter the site each day. These measures help prevent damage and preserve its historical and cultural significance. By respecting the rules and practicing sustainable tourism, we can ensure that future generations will also have the opportunity to explore and appreciate this incredible historical treasure.

Writing Sample:Hoi An – A Must-Visit Destination in Vietnam

One of the most famous tourist destinations in Vietnam is Hoi An. Located in central Vietnam, this ancient town is known for its well-preserved architecture, lantern-lit streets, and unique cultural heritage. Tourists can explore the charming old town, visit the famous Japanese Covered Bridge, or take a boat ride along the Thu Bon River. Hoi An is also famous for its tailor-made clothing shops and delicious local food, such as Cao Lau and Banh Mi. Every evening, the town becomes even more magical with thousands of colorful lanterns lighting up the streets. However, over-tourism and pollution are affecting its beauty. We should take steps to protect this wonderful place. In my opinion, Hoi An is a must-visit destination for anyone traveling to Vietnam.
