Read the story. Look at the pictures in the box. Write the correct words next to numbers 1–6. There is one example.

Mr Lime loved his work at the zoo.

Every day he ..washed.. the elephants and gave the (1)..... and tigers their food, but his favourite animals were two kangaroos. Every morning, he put some (2)..... in a big yellow bowl and took it to them. The kangaroos always saw him and (3)..... to their bowl and ate it all very quickly. They enjoyed it!

One fine morning, Mr Lime put two big apples in the kangaroos' bowl for them to eat.

He waited and waited but they didn't come.

"I don't understand this," Mr Lime (4)..... .

"I can't find the kangaroos!" he told the woman who worked in the zoo (5)..... .

"Oh! They had a new baby yesterday," she said. "Look! They're all sleeping outside. They're enjoying the hot (6)..... . Now you've got three favourite animals, Mr Lime, not two!" she laughed.
