

CREATE A COMIC STRIP!

A comic strip template consisting of five rectangular panels. The top row contains two panels of equal size. The middle row contains a single, larger panel that spans the width of the two panels above it. The bottom row contains two panels of equal size. There are two star decorations: one in the top-left corner of the first panel in the top row, and another in the bottom-right corner of the second panel in the bottom row.
