

The present simple and present continuous

We use the present simple to talk about habits and things that are always true.
Leo goes to the café after school. Giraffes are very tall.

We use the present continuous to talk about what we are doing now.
Holly's upstairs. She's doing her homework. I'm making dinner at the moment.
See page 78 for formation of the -ing form.

Adverbs of frequency

We use adverbs of frequency with the present simple to talk about how often we do things.

never	rarely	sometimes	usually	always
0%				100%

Adverbs of frequency go before most verbs, but after the verb be.

We usually sit here. They are always late.

We don't use adverbs of frequency with the present continuous.
