

Past Simple vs Present Perfect

The Present Perfect (have/has + V3) always connects the past and the present;
The Past Simple (V2) tells us only about the past.

Ex.1) Match each sentence 1-4 with A or B.

1. Mary has been to Paris.

- A) She's still in Paris.
- B) She went there for a holiday in 2019.

2. I haven't seen Tom this morning.

- A) It's too late to see him now.
- B) I hope I will see him before the morning ends

3. The Browns lived in Canada for seven months.

- A) They still live there.
- B) They don't live there now.

4. Sarah has lived with us for two years.

- A) She's still living with us.
- B) She doesn't live with us anymore.

Ex. 2) Choose the correct answer.

1. The conference started / has started two hours ago.
2. I haven't done / didn't do my project yet.
3. Did the concert finish / Has the concert finished yet?
4. I have never met / never met anybody as rude as you.
5. He has sprained / sprained his ankle last summer.
6. Adam has broken / broke his bicycle yesterday.
7. Have you fallen / Did you fall over a lot when you were a child?

Ex. 3) Complete the sentences. Use the past simple or present perfect form of the verbs in the box.

study / become / speak / not go / live / know / not see / post / take up / go / hear /
