

Tick the correct word.

My project was a bit/completely ruined! All of it!

Hardly/Totally anyone came to her party.

The test was somewhat/absolutely hard, but I passed it.

Jennifer is totally/a little into art. She loves it!

Eddy hates Science. Instead, he hardly/absolutely enjoys PE.

We are a little bit/completely worried but not too much.

Choose a or b.

- 1) Students always... be in time for lessons.
a) have to b) can
- 2) We ...choose subjects at our old school.
a) can b) could
- 3) The teacher... get angry next time.
a) may b) has to
- 4) Ann told me she ... be late.
a) may b) might
- 5) David is very smart. He ... do this task.
a) can b) could
- 6) I ... study late yesterday.
a) have to b) had to Listen and put the sentences into the correct order.

- Nice to meet you too, Duke. This school is so big and spacious!
- Yes, there is. Next to the entrance.
- Thank you.
- Oh, I probably missed it.
- Are you new here?
- That would be awesome. Thank you.
- Don't worry. I can give you a tour of our school later if you want.
- Yes, certainly. It's on the first floor behind the library. Follow me.
- No problem.

1 - Excuse me, can you show me where the science lab is?

- Isn't there a map or something?
- Yeah, it's easy to get lost here.
- Yes, I'm Jane.
- Nice to meet you, Jane. I'm Duke.