

Test 2 (Module 2)

VOCABULARY

A. Read the text and complete the blanks with the correct form of the words in bold.

'Fashion victim' is a term used to describe someone who feels that they have to be (1) _____ and need to buy every latest hot design. However there are other kinds of fashion victims too and that includes the (2) _____ size zero models who can be seen on catwalks and in magazines. Unlike the many (3) _____ on the street who really don't have food to eat, these models choose to go days without eating or eat just lettuce for months.

FASHION

STARVE

HOME

Some fashion designers finally protested against these dangerously thin models. After the death of a model from undereating, in August 2006, Madrid Fashion Week banned size zero models and major Italian fashion labels also agreed to ban size zero models from their catwalks.

It was not just models but women and mothers too, who were (4) _____ for this change, as what happens in the fashion world also puts pressure on women and girls in general.

THANK

Many people believe that the clothes we see in fashion magazines should be

(5) _____ by real people and that there shouldn't be unrealistic expectations put on the way we should look. Furthermore, it is believed that

WEAR

(6) _____ designs should be available for people of all sizes and shapes. In addition, one designer points out that it's not always the case that you can take the same design and just make it in all sizes. Sometimes (7) _____ changes have to be made to make the same outfit look good as the size changes.

INNOVATION

CONSIDER

Even before the appearance of models, people suffered for their appearance, wearing shoes with incredible high heels or dresses pulled so tight that it was (8) _____ for the person wearing them to breathe, causing them to faint. The challenge, then, for some designers is to make clothes that are playful and original and able to be worn by real people.
