

Darren Aronofsky

Fill in the blanks with the correct tense (Present Simple, Present Continuous, Present Perfect, Present Perfect Continuous). Some sentences are in passive voice.

Darren Aronofsky is an American filmmaker who _____ (make) visually striking and psychologically intense movies. He often _____ (explore) themes like obsession, faith, and identity. Right now, he _____ (work) on several projects, including documentaries about nature and climate change. His unique style _____ (influence) many young directors around the world. His films _____ (praise) by critics for their originality.

Aronofsky _____ (begin) his career in the late 1990s with the film Pi. Since then, he _____ (direct) critically acclaimed films such as Requiem for a Dream, Black Swan, and The Whale. For years, critics _____ (discuss) his ability to combine surreal imagery with emotional storytelling. Recently, audiences _____ (become) more interested in his environmental activism. His work _____ (recognize) by major award ceremonies around the world.

Over the past decade, he _____ (experiment) with different genres and storytelling techniques. He _____ (travel) extensively to research his documentary series about the planet. He _____ (say) in interviews that he wants to inspire viewers to protect the environment. At the moment, he _____ (develop) new scripts that focus on human connection and survival. His directing style _____ (study) by film students for many years.