

REPORTING VERBS

Task One. Match the idioms with the definitions. Write the letter.

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| 1. announce ____ | a. to say you are willing to do or give something to someone. |
| 2. offer ____ | b. to make something clear by giving details or reasons. |
| 3. explain ____ | c. to tell people something officially or publicly |
| 4. warn ____ | d. to say you are unhappy or dissatisfied about something. |
| 5. complain ____ | e. to tell someone about possible danger or bad result |

Task Two. Read the sentences, choose the correct reporting verb and write it in the simple past tense form in the blanks.

RECOMMEND, APOLOGIZE, ENCOURAGE, THREATEN, ADMIT

1. She _____ for being late
2. Tom _____ that he had broken the vase.
3. The waiter _____ the chef's special
4. My parents _____ me to work harder for the exam.
5. The man _____ to call the police if we didn't leave.

Task Three. Choose the gerund or the infinitive form of the verb following the reporting verb.

1. He denied _____ the money.
2. They invited us _____ the night.
3. I begged her _____ me.
4. He suggested _____ to a museum.
5. She insisted on _____ for the dinner.

Task Four. The reporting verbs in these sentence transformations are used with infinitives. Read the first sentence and complete the second sentence with the key word in capital letters..

1. "I won't be late," he promised.
BE
He promised not _____.

2. "Let's meet at seven," they said.
They agreed _____ seven.

3. "I refuse to answer," she said.
ANSWER
She refused _____.

4. "Don't forget to call," she said.
NOT
She reminded me _____ to call.

5. "You should see a doctor," he said.
SEE
He advised me _____.

