The Day of the Dead is celebrated on November 1 in Mexico, Ecuador, Guatemala, and other parts of Latin America. Families gather to pray to dead relatives and ask them to return for one night. People decorate their homes and gravesites with food, candles, candy skulls, and flowers to welcome the dead back to Earth. People dress up as skeletons and parade through the streets. Pan de los muertos (bread of the dead) is baked in the shape of skulls and crossbones, and a toy is hidden inside each loaf. The person who bites into the toy is said to have good luck. The Day of the Dead sounds like a scary event, but it's a happy time to celebrate and remember the lives of dead family members.
