

WILDLIFE FILMS LISTENING

You will hear an interview with a man called Tony Little, who makes wildlife films and works for a wildlife conservation organization called The Nature Trust. Listen and choose the best answer from the questions below.

1 Tony thinks that the hardest challenge he faces is

- A to publicize what The Nature Trust does.
- B to expand the range of people volunteering.
- C to interest local groups in a variety of activities.

2 What does Tony think about the use of plastic?

- A He knows it will be difficult to change people's attitudes to it.
- B He worries that there is no way of preventing plastic waste.
- C He believes it causes the biggest problem to wildlife.

3 Tony hopes that his new website Nature Talk will help people learn

- A about different animal habitats.
- B how to watch animals in the wild.
- C which animals are endangered.

4 Tony says the achievement that he is most proud of is

- A helping to make a popular film.
- B doing a scientific study.
- C working on an award-winning project.

5 What disadvantage does Tony mention about having a career as a cameraman.

- A it is often badly paid.
- B it can be hard to find enough work.
- C It usually involves long hours.

6. Tony advises young naturalists that it is essential to have

- A suitable walking boots.
- B the latest photography equipment.
- C good binoculars.

7. What would Tony like to do in the future?

- A to help save the tiger and polar bear.
- B to publicize the dangers facing a variety of species.
- C to produce more films for TV about animals.

