Disclaimer: This resource has been made for the purpose of teaching English language learners. We know that students can be learning English in many different places, in many different ways and at any age, so we try to keep these resources as general as possible.

There are many acronyms associated with English language teaching. These include (but are not limited to) ELT, TEFL, EFL, ELL, EAL and ESOL. While the term ESL may not fully represent the linguistic backgrounds of all students, it is the most widely recognised term for English language teaching globally. Therefore, we use the term 'ESL' in the names of our resources to make them easy to find but they are suitable for any student learning to speak English.

The Big Surprise

Hello, my name is Betty, and I live in a small house with my younger brother George, my mum, and my dad. Our house has a big green gate at the entrance and a small garden in front. My favourite thing about our house is the swing in the garden. I always sit on it after school and write in my diary.

Last Saturday, something exciting happened! Mum and Dad told us to stay outside for a while. They said, "We have a surprise for you, but you can't see it yet!" George and I played on the swing, but we were very excited. After a while, we heard Dad call, "Come inside now!" When we opened the door, we saw lots of new things in the house. There was a new fridge in the kitchen next to the old cooker, and a new silver oven too.

In the living room, there were two new cushions on the sofa. They were big and soft. "These are for movie nights!" said Dad. Then George ran to the bathroom and shouted, "Wow! There's new soap and shampoo here!" I followed him and saw Mum putting a new comb and brush on the sink for me. I was so happy!

Later, Mum gave me a letter from Aunt Sophie. She sent it with a key to her house because we're going to stay there next weekend. She wrote, "You can use the back entrance, and don't forget to bring your diary so you can write about your trip!"

That evening, George and I sat on the steps outside the house. "What a great day!" George said. I smiled and said, "Yes, but the best part was the swing!"

Betty lives with her family in a small house.

1. Betty's younger _____ is called George.
2. Betty's favourite thing in her house is the _____.
3. Something exciting happened _____.
4. In the kitchen, there was a _____ next to the old cooker.
