and went to the castle. But the bus stop was far away from the castle, so he had to (3) a long way to get there. When he got to the castle, he was really (4) so he sat down on a bench inside the castle to rest. He fell asleep and had a weird dream. In his dream, while he was sitting on the bench, a big monster came into the castle. But it didn't look scary at all. It (5) at Jim and took him to every room in the castle and told him lots of stories about the history of it, even stories about the king and the queen who lived there. Then he said goodbye to Jim and flew out the window.
