Conditional Sentences Type 1

We use Conditional Sentences Type 1 for something which is likely to happen in the present or future.

IF-CLAUSE
If+Present Simple
MAIN CLAUSE
Future will
Modal Verbs (can, may, might, must)
Imperative

If I like the car, I'll buy it.

If you want to get into the museum, you must buy a ticket.

If you don't feel well, go to bed.

NOTE:

- We can use unless instead of if... not. We'll go shopping unless it rains. (=We'll go shopping if it doesn't rain.)
- When the if-clause comes before the main clause, the two clauses are separated by a comma.

Time Clauses (Present - Future)

- Time clauses begin with when, after, before, as soon as, until, etc.
- When the sentence refers to the present or future, we usually use the Present Simple in the time clause and the Future will in the main clause.

TIME CLAUSE
As soon as I know,
Before I leave,
MAIN CLAUSE
I'll tell you.
I'll help you with your project.

NOTE:

- When the time clause comes before the main clause, the two clauses are separated by a comma.
