

Charity Begins at

Describe a time when you had to care for a loved one. Use the notes below :

- The person you cared for
- The reason you cared for them
- The way you helped them
- The lessons you learned

Rearrange the sentences from 1 - 7 to form a complete essay.

I had to care for my grandfather.
Because of this, I helped him with his meals, dressed him up after his showers, and reminded him to take his medicine. Although it was sometimes exhausting, I knew I had to be strong for him.
It was a meaningful time that taught me patience, love, and responsibility.
My grandfather had become weak due to old age, and he often felt dizzy and tired.
From this experience, I learned that "charity begins at home."
Last year, I experienced what it truly means to care for someone you love.
Besides, I realized that every small act of kindness can make a great difference in someone's life.

LIVEWORKSHEETS