Right everyone, I want to (1) ..... the trip to the school of cooking next week – on the 16th of February.

Some of you have asked me (2) ..... of cooking we're going to – well, it's called Stice – you spell that S-T-I-C-E.

Some of you may know it – it's in town, near the train station. We won't be going by train, but by bus. It's (3) ..... to keep everyone together that way.

Now, on the day of the trip, you'll (4) ..... get to school earlier than usual, as our trip (5) ..... at nine o'clock. Please be here at 8.15. Don't be late!

It's a school of cooking, so we'll be making something. The group I took (6) ..... made pizzas, which were fantastic, and I'm sure the cakes we make this time will be just as good. Tell your parents that they'll (7) ..... pay nine pounds fifty for the day – that includes five pounds for the food that (8) ..... make.

Good, that's everything.
