A. Circle the correct options.

1. What a beautiful tight / woollen scarf! It looks so warm too.
2. Some people hate seeing styles / graffiti on buildings, but others think it makes city streets more interesting and colourful.
3. Do you know Roger? Let me fit / introduce you.
4. My mum wants me to wear a dress that she used to wear, but I don't want to because I don't like the design / product .

B. Look at the pictures, and complete the descriptions with the words in the box.

checked casual spotted striped torn flared sparkly formal

1. Alex is wearing _____ clothes because he's going to the theatre. He's wearing black trousers and a _____ shirt.
2. Roy's style is _____. Today he's wearing a yellow T-shirt and _____ jeans.
3. Tina loves her new _____ jeans.
4. This is Karen's favourite shirt. She loves items of clothing that are _____ .
5. Lindsay is wearing a _____ shirt and a _____ hat.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

C. Complete the sentences with all, both, neither, none or either.

1. A: Do you want to go shopping on Friday or on Saturday?

   B: _____ day is fine with me. I'm free on _____ days.

2. I wanted to go to the shopping centre yesterday, but _____ of my parents could give me a lift.

3. A: Did you buy anything from that new clothes shop?

   B: No. _____ of the clothes were my style. _____ of them looked terrible on me!

4. _____ Sally and Keira came round yesterday. We _____ went shopping together.

- Both is used for two people or things. It is used in affirmative sentences and takes a plural verb.
  Pablo and Kim are my friends. Both of them are students. / They are both students.

- All is used for more than two people or things. It is used in affirmative sentences and takes a plural verb.
  Kim, Emma, Pablo and Mike are going to travel all over Europe. They are all happy. / All of them are happy.

- Neither is used for two people or things. It is used in affirmative sentences and gives them a negative meaning. It takes a singular or plural verb.
  Emma and Kim want to go to Rome. Neither of them has/have been to Italy.

- None is used for more than two people or things. It is used in affirmative sentences and gives them a negative meaning. It takes a singular or plural verb.
  Rozita, Robert and Clara are from Italy. None of them speaks/ speak English.

- Either is used for two people or things. It means one or the other (it doesn't matter which of the two).
  Would you like cherries or strawberries?
  Either. I don't mind.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

E. Complete the sentences with the correct order of the adjectives given.

1. trendy cotton

   I need a _____ scarf.

2. sparkly black

   Do you like these _____ shoes?

3. nice woollen

   Where is your _____ hat?

4. silk spotted

   We bought three _____ shirts.

NUMBER	OPINION	COLOUR	DESIGN	MATERIAL	NOUN
Two	nice	red and white	striped	cotton	T-shirts.

LIVEWORKSHEETS