

Giving Directions activity! Your goal is to practice forming correct phrases for giving directions in English. You'll see a set of jumbled words, and your task is to drag and drop them into the right order to form a complete and accurate direction.

straight ahead
Go

This means you should keep walking or driving without turning.   .

right Turn

This indicates you should turn in the direction of your dominant hand if you are right-handed.  .

Take on the right street
first the

It means you should turn on the first street you see on your right.      .

past post office the Go

You have to walk or drive beyond the post office building without stopping.     .

the between the It's library and
café

The place is located in the middle of a café and a library.       .

two for blocks Walk

You need to walk the distance of two city blocks.
  .

You it miss can't

This is a way of saying that the place is very easy to find.
   .

It's left on your

The destination is on the side of the street that corresponds to your left hand.
.

your right on It's

The destination is on the side of the street that corresponds to your right hand.
 .

Cross street
the

You need to walk to the other side of the street.
 .

the bank
next to It's

The place is right beside the bank.
  .

opposite It's park the

The place is in front of the park.
 .