

1. Read and choose will or won't.

- a. Don't worry about the homework. I will / won't help you after lunch.
- b. Peter is exhausted. He will / won't play football this afternoon.
- c.
- d. Don't be afraid. The dog is friendly, it will / won't bite you.
- e. In the future, people will / won't travel to Mars.
- f. Don't worry about the food. Mom will / won't cook pizza for dinner tonight.
- g. I'm sorry. We are late, so we will / won't catch the bus.
- h. I'm sure our football team will / won't win the match on Saturday.
- i. Be careful with that glass! It will / won't break if you drop it.
- j. Don't get up, I will / won't answer the phone.
- k. I wake up very early so I will / won't be late to school.

2. Read and choose will or going to.

- a. It's very hot in this room. I think I will / am going to open the window now.
- b. María bought tickets yesterday. She will / is going to watch a movie with her sister.
- c. Those clouds are really dark. It will / is going to rain soon.
- d. Tom: I don't understand this piece of homework. I'm not good at maths.
Ben: Don't worry, Tom. I will / am going to help you with your homework.
- e. Anna is wearing her favorite tennis costume and is holding her tennis racket. She will / is going to play a match this afternoon.
- f. I think we will / are going to win Intertrubis. Our team is the best one!
- g. Look at that car! It's driving so fast. It will / is going to have an accident.
- h. They have their suitcases packed. They will / are going to travel to London tomorrow morning.
- i. Tom didn't bring his lunch. I will / am going to share my sandwich with him.
- j. Lisa already prepared the cake and decorated the table. She will / is going to have a party this evening.