Going Places

As a travel writer, I've been to some of the most 1) places on earth, and I've also attended some very 2) local events and celebrations. This means that I've been to dozens of festivals, carnivals and parades all over the world. "Aren't you 3) with going to all these celebrations? Don't they all feel the same after you've been to twenty or thirty of them?" my friends ask me. The 4) answer is no! Every time I visit a new festival I feel 5) as if I've never been to a festival before. Festivals are not a 6) experience, but no matter how 7) I am after a day or days of celebrating, I'm always 8) that I had the chance to experience the local culture of a place. It's always 9) to know that the next event I go to, I'll do new things and make new friends. And I'm never 10); this is what always happens during these festive events!
