The Toy Shop Visit

Last Sunday, Anna and her brother Tom went to the new toy shop near their house. The shop was colorful and full of different toys. There were shelves of puzzles, robots, cars, dolls, and board games. Tom ran straight to the section with toy cars. He picked a shiny blue racing car that could move when he pulled it back and let it go.

Anna looked at the shelves of dolls and soft toys. She saw a teddy bear wearing a red bow and decided to buy it. "This one looks so cute," she said. Their mother told them they could each choose one toy only.

After paying, they went home and played together. Tom raced his car around the living room while Anna hugged her teddy bear and made up stories about it. They both took care of their new toys and promised to keep them safe and clean.
