

PHRASAL VERBS REVIEW

Part 1: Complete the examples with the correct phrasal verb from the box. Make sure you conjugate the verb correctly and use object pronouns if necessary. (Not all the verbs will be used). (0.5 each)

call on	hear from	put off	look through	get away with	live through throw out	call up	look for	take back	drop off	fill out

1.	I've decided to _____ all of my notebooks from junior high. I just don't use them anymore.
2.	Yesterday, I got a call from my high school best friend, and we talked for about 2 hours. It was so nice to _____ her after all these years.
3.	You shouldn't _____ going to the doctor if you're feeling run-down. You might need medication.
4.	The patient had to _____ a form with all of his personal information before he was admitted into the hospital.
5.	This morning, the Medical Sales Representative _____ some samples of different treatments and prescription drugs at the hospital reception for the doctors to test them with their patients.
6.	I was _____ these magazine articles and I found some information on the project I'm working on.
7.	My father-in-law can't _____ a second heart attack, so he needs to watch his health.
8.	You can't _____ cheating on a test when you're a med student. You're going to be taking care of people's lives!
9.	I'm struggling a bit with Math. I'll _____ my cousin so he can help me out. He's good with numbers, you know?
10.	I hate it when teachers _____ me while I'm distracted with my phone because I almost never get the answer right.