

Sterility: molecule that stimulates an immune response.

Transmitted: state of being subject to death.

Infection: a disease-causing organism including bacteria.

Antigen: Physiological inability to affect sexual reproduction in a living thing.

Pathogen: passed on from one person or place to another.

Antibody: a disease caused by microorganisms that invade tissue.

Endemic: disease regularly found among people.

Mortality: specialized Y-shaped protein that tags antigens for destruction.