

8 Multiple choice questions

Definition

newspapers, magazines

1 of 16

- ☐ Examples of broadcast media
- ☐ The three types of media
- ☐ Examples of print media
- ☐ Examples of internet media (new)

Definition

television, radio

2 of 16

- ☐ The three types of media
- ☐ Examples of broadcast media
- ☐ Examples of print media
- ☐ Examples of internet media (new)

Definition

Favoring one view over another

3 of 16

- ☐ bias
- ☐ Libel
- ☐ public agenda
- ☐ Slander

Definition

blogs, social media, podcasts

4 of 16

- ☐ The three types of media
- ☐ Examples of broadcast media
- ☐ Examples of print media
- ☐ Examples of internet media (new)

Definition

Informative, facts, clear creator, objective, timely

5 of 16

- ☐ disinformation
- ☐ Examples of internet media (new)
- ☐ Characteristics of a NEWS story
- ☐ Examples of broadcast media

Term

Paul Revere engraving of Boston Massacre

6 of 16

☐

blogs, social media, podcasts

☐

informative, facts, clear creator, objective, timely

☐

television, radio

☐

The three types of media

☐ newspapers, magazines

☐

☐ print, broadcast, internet

☐ blogs, social media, podcasts

☐

☐ television, radio

☐

Definition

Accidently sharing false information.

☐ disinformation

☐ misinformation

☐ state run media

☐ mass media

8 Matching questions

☐

libel

☐

disinformation

☐

mass media

☐

public agenda

☐

slander

☐

state run media

☐

propaganda

☐

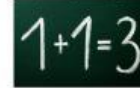

watchdog

A. Forms of communication that reach millions of people.

9 of 16

B. purposefully creating and spreading false information.

C. Issues people agree are important and should be talked about

D. the role played by media; keeps an eye on people of power/government and exposes when they do something wrong

E. written false statements that is damaging to a person's reputation.

F. when the government controls the media and therefore what the citizens read and watch

G. Misleading information used to try and convince people of something

H. spoken false statements that is damaging to a person's reputation.

